

Internship Admissions, Support, and Initial Placement Data

Date Program Tables are updated:

Briefly describe in narrative form important information to assist potential applicants in assessing their likely fit with your program. This description must be consistent with the program's policies on intern selection and practicum and academic preparation requirements:

Alameda Family Services is an exclusively affiliated site with the Wright Institute. Successful applicants are likely to be interested in social justice oriented community mental health and have clinical interests that are a match for who we serve, including learning about and providing services to children; adolescents; families; couples; diverse populations from a strengths-based, collaborative perspective; and individuals in crisis. Additionally candidates who are a fit with our program will possess strong clinical skills demonstrated in practicum placements including areas of training, experience, or skill likely to support the needs of the clients of our agency including prior narrative training; child, family, and/or couple experience; and ability to provide services in languages other than English. We seek candidates who possess a sense of professional identity and responsibility. Prior Medi-Cal documentation experience is a plus. Students from diverse backgrounds are strongly encouraged to apply.

Does the program require that applicants have received a minimum number of hours of the following at time of application? If Yes, indicate how many: No
